Privacy Notice for Governors and Volunteers

This privacy notice describes how we collect, store and use personal information about you during and after your work relationship with us, in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR).

Following Brexit, Regulation (EU) 2016/679, General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) was incorporated into UK law as retained EU law and is now known as the UK GDPR. The UK GDPR operates alongside the Data Protection Act 2018, which supplements it by setting out additional provisions on matters such as processing in specific sectors, exemptions, the powers of the Information Commission and enforcement. The Data (Use and Access) Act 2025 further amends both the UK GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018 to modernise UK data protection rules and clarify certain rights and obligations. The GDPR continues to apply within the EU and to organisations that process personal data of individuals located in the EU.

This privacy notice applies to individuals serving on Local Governing Boards and volunteers working within academies across the Trust. It does not apply to Trustees, who are covered by a separate privacy notice.

Who Collects this Information

Ted Wragg Multi Academy Trust is the data controller for personal data processed across the Trust and its academies. Individual academies may process personal data on behalf of the Trust when administering local governance or volunteer activities. This means the Trust decides how and why your personal information is used and is responsible for providing you with the information in this notice.

This notice does not form part of any contract of employment or other contract to provide services and we may update this notice at any time.

It is important that you read this notice with any other policies mentioned within this privacy notice, so that you are aware of how and why we are processing your information, what your rights are under data protection legislation and the procedures we take to protect your personal data.

Data Protection Principles

We will comply with the data protection principles when gathering and using personal information, as set out in our data protection policy.

Categories of Information We Collect, Process, Hold and Share

We may collect, store and use the following categories of personal information about you:

- Personal information and contact details such as name, title, addresses, date of birth, marital status, phone numbers and personal email addresses;
- Emergency contact information such as names, relationship, phone numbers and email addresses;
- Education details;
- DBS details;
- Employment details;
- Information about business and pecuniary interests;

- Information acquired as part of your application to become a governor;
- Criminal records information as required by law to enable you to work with children;
- Information about your use of our IT, communications and other systems, and other monitoring information;
- Photographs;
- Images captured by the Trust's CCTV systems;
- Video recordings captured by the Trust's video conferencing platform;
- Details in references about you that we give to others.

We may also collect, store and use the following more sensitive types of personal information:

- Information about your race or ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs
- Information about your health, including any medical conditions.

How We Collect this Information

The majority of the information that we collect from you is mandatory, however there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us. Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

We may collect this information from you directly, or from third-party sources such as other governors and volunteers, references or meeting records, the Disclosure and Barring Service, regulatory authorities, professional bodies, and our IT and communication systems.

How and Why We Use Your Information

We will only use your personal information when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your information in the following circumstances:

- Where you have provided your consent;
- Where we need to perform a contract, we have entered into with you;
- Where we need to comply with a legal obligation (such as health and safety legislation and under statutory codes of practice);
- Where it is needed in the public interest or for official purposes;
- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests, rights and freedoms do not override those interests.

The situations in which we will process your personal information are listed below: -

- To determine appointment and suitability as a governor;
- To deal with election of governors;
- To comply with safeguarding obligations;
- To provide details on Trust or academy websites or online databases about local governors;
- To communicate with third parties and other stakeholders to the Trust and its academies;
- For business management and planning purposes (including accounting, budgetary and health and safety purposes;
- For financial purposes (such as expenses);
- To deal with any complaints/investigations as required;
- When you sit on an academy level panel or committee: name and comments as well as decisions made;
- To send communications in your role as governor;

- For education, training and development requirements;
- In order to review governance of the Trust's academies;
- In order to comply with any legal dispute or any legal obligations;
- In order to comply with regulatory requirements or health and safety obligations;
- To ensure system security, including preventing unauthorised access to our networks;
- To monitor use of our systems to ensure compliance with our IT processes;
- To receive advice from external advisors and consultants;
- To liaise with regulatory bodies (such as the DfE, DBS); and
- Dealing with termination of your appointment;

Further information about monitoring is available in the Trust's CCTV Policy on the Data Protection Page.

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations (such as to ensure health and safety). Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time.

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

How We Use Particularly Sensitive Information

Sensitive personal information (as defined under the UK GDPR as "special category data") requires higher levels of protection and further justification for collecting, storing, and using. We may process this data in the following circumstances: -

- In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent;
- Where we need to carry out our legal obligations in line with our data protection policy;
- For reasons of substantial public interest, such as safeguarding pupils or preventing unlawful acts;
- To establish, exercise or defend legal claims;
- Where it is necessary to protect your vital interests (or those of another person) and you are unable to give consent.

Criminal Convictions

We may only use information relating to criminal convictions where the law allows us to do so. This will usually be where it is necessary to carry out our legal obligations.

Where appropriate we will collect information about criminal convictions as part of the recruitment process or we may be notified of such information directly by you in the course of working for us.

Sharing Data

We may need to share your data with third parties, including third party service providers where required by law, where it is necessary to administer the working relationship with you, or where we have another legitimate interest in doing so. These include the following:

- Government departments or agencies
- The Local Authority
- Suppliers and Service providers
- Professional advisors and consultants

- The Department for Education
- Law enforcement
- Support services;
- DBS.
- Other schools/academies within the federation/trust

Information will be provided to those agencies securely, and anonymised where possible.

We also use third-party governance, communications, training, information security and volunteer-management systems. These providers may process personal data on our behalf where necessary to provide their services. Appropriate data protection and security arrangements are required.

The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations. We require them to respect the security of your data and to treat it in accordance with the law.

We may transfer your personal information outside the UK. Where we do so, we will ensure appropriate safeguards are in place, such as adequacy decisions, the UK International Data Transfer Agreement or EU Standard Contractual Clauses with the UK Addendum. Further details can be provided upon request.

Retention Periods

Except as otherwise permitted or required by applicable law or regulation, the Trust only retains personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes they collected it for, as required to satisfy any legal, accounting or reporting obligations, or as necessary to resolve disputes.

Once you are no longer a governor or volunteer within the Trust, we will retain and securely destroy your personal information in accordance with our Data Retention Policy, available under Data Protection Policies on the Data Protection Page.

Security

We have put in place measures to protect the security of your information, including against it being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way. Access is limited to employees, agents, contractors and other third parties with a business need to know. Details of these measures are available under Data Protection Policies on the Data Protection Page.

Further details of our security procedures are available in the Data Breach Policy under Data Protection Policies on the Data Protection Page.

It is important that you read this notice with any other policies mentioned within this privacy notice, so that you are aware of how and why we are processing your information, what your rights are under data protection legislation and the procedures we take to protect your personal data.

Automated Decision Making

Automated decision making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make a decision without human intervention. We are required to ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place when using automated decision making for significant decisions and the circumstances in which we are permitted to use special category data (sensitive information) in automated decision making are limited.

You will not be subject to automated decision making for significant decisions unless we have a lawful basis, and a valid condition where required, for doing so and appropriate safeguards are in place. Appropriate safeguards include informing the relevant individuals about the automated decision making and their rights to request a human review, express their views, and contest the decision.

Your Rights of Access, Correction, Erasure and Restriction

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Access your personal information (commonly known as a "subject access request"). This allows you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check we are lawfully processing it. You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information. However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.
- Correction of the personal information we hold about you. This enables you to have any inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Erasure of your personal information. You can ask us to delete or remove personal data if there is no good reason for us continuing to process it.
- Restriction of processing your personal information. You can ask us to suspend processing personal information about you in certain circumstances, for example, if you want us to establish its accuracy before processing it.
- To object to processing in certain circumstances (for example for direct marketing purposes).
- To transfer your personal information to another party.

If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please contact dataprotection@tedwraggtrust.co.uk in writing. We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights).

Right to Withdraw Consent

In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact dataprotection@tedwraggtrust.co.uk. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

Contact

If you would like to discuss anything within this privacy notice or have a concern about how we collect or use your personal data, please contact dataprotection@tedwraggtrust.co.uk in the first instance. We will acknowledge your complaint within 30 calendar days and investigate and respond without undue delay. Further information is available in our Data Protection Policy on the Data Protection Page.

We have appointed a Data Protection Officer (DPO) to oversee compliance with data protection legislation and this privacy notice. If your question cannot be resolved by the Trust Data Protection Team, you can contact the DPO using the details below:

Data Protection Officer:	Judicium Consulting Limited
Address:	5th Floor, 98 Theobalds Road, London, WC1X 8WB
Email:	dataservices@judicium.com
Web:	www.judiciumeducation.co.uk

Should you remain dissatisfied with our response, you also have the right to make a complaint to the Information Commission's Office (ICO), the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues.

Changes to this Privacy Notice

We reserve the right to update this privacy notice at any time, and we will provide you with a new privacy notice when we make any substantial updates. We may also notify you in other ways from time to time about the processing of your personal information.